Re: Proposals and Plans on Governance, Voice, and Communications

With respect to the Letter to the University Community from the Special Committee of the Board of Trustees, dated August 14, 2013:

The Faculty Senators Council welcomes and appreciates the opportunity to establish a joint committee to facilitate direct and regular communication on university matters with the Board of Trustees. We note the Board's commitment to provide faculty with a clear role in the presidential search process. The FSC looks forward to working with the Board on these initiatives to realize the goal of shared governance at NYU.
