*Courses at partner universities in host countries may not adhere to dates above, as these courses often have different start dates

Regarding Pass/Fail:

- Students are instructed to follow their home school's policies and deadlines, available on Global Site Blackboard shells. (Note: Language courses must be taken for letter graded credit)
- Students are instructed to communicate with their home school advisor
- Gallatin students are given an additional 4 weeks, (9 weeks after the start of classes.)

Paris students must check with their on-site advisors for pass/fail options. See also the NYU in France Undergraduate Course Policy.

- Please contact global.academics@nyu.edu if you have questions regarding these dates and deadlines.
