What is advisor certification?

Study Abroad Advisors will be asked to verify that you have applied to a credit-eligible study abroad program and confirm your study abroad program information. The Financial Aid Advisor will be asked to verify whether you are currently receiving a Federal Pell Grant and the estimated amount of financial aid, excluding loans, you can apply to your program. Advisors can only certify if information is correct, we cannot advocate on students’ behalf.

Statement of Purpose
5 Questions to Ask Yourself

Statement of Purpose Essay

1. Do you make a connection between your program and goals?

2. Do you make a connection between your country and goals?

3. Do you share how you will be academically successful on your program?

4. Do you give examples of your experiences, skills, and knowledge that you will use to meet program challenges?

5. Do you address how this abroad experience will impact your future?
“NYU BA is awesome. I can take lots of literature courses that count towards my major, plus GPH and CORE courses.”

WAIT!
1. What is NYU BA? You must spell everything out- not everyone understands the world of NYU acronyms
2. Which literature courses? Why study literature in Buenos Aires?
3. What’s your major? How does this study abroad connect to your future goals?
4. What’s GPH and CORE?
“I’m so excited to travel because I’ve never been to Europe. Florence is a great location because it’s centrally located and makes travel easy. I’m going to take Stern courses in Florence because I want to work in Finance.”

WAIT!
1. Traveling is fun, but this is NOT what Gilman wants to read about. What else do you hope to experience?
2. What’s Stern?
3. How does taking business courses in another country contribute to your understanding of the field you want to work in?
Sample Section

“I don’t have enough money for study abroad and my family doesn’t understand why I want to go abroad. I generally find that as an underrepresented student it is hard for me to go abroad.”

WAIT!

1. Most students applying for Gilman have significant financial need. Are there specific circumstances that make it financially difficult for you to go?
2. Could you provide more information about the support you are receiving from your family (financial, emotional, etc.) to study abroad?
3. Are you the first in your family to go to college? To study abroad?
4. Will you lose income during study abroad because you have to put your job on hold?
5. Do you have a disability that makes it more difficult for you to go?
6. Do you identify as a student of color, and does this play into your decision to study abroad?

3 Questions to Ask Yourself

Building Mutual Understanding Essay

1. Do you articulate how you will represent the U.S. as a citizen diplomat while abroad?

2. Do you explain how will contribute to the goal of building mutual understanding?

3. Do you discuss how you will look for opportunities to build meaningful relationships and become more culturally engaged?
Sample Section

“I understand that if selected not only would I be a representative of Gilman scholars, but also a representative of the United States. During my time abroad I will engage both inside and outside the classroom by participating in school related excursions and adventuring on personal travel to meet Spanish locals.”

WAIT!
1. Give more detail on how to have meaningful interaction with community members
2. How are you representing the US? How can you break the “American abroad "stereotypes?"
3. What type of activities or involvement do you hope to be apart of and how will studying abroad help you build mutual understanding?

5 Questions to Ask Yourself

Follow-On Service Project (FOSP) Proposal

1. Does your FOSP increase awareness of the Gilman Scholarship and study abroad?

2. Is your project feasible?

3. Do you give a detailed plan for your project?

4. Do you incorporate your study abroad experience into your project?

5. Do you have an intended audience? Who will you collaborate with to reach this community?
“For my follow up service project, I am planning to hold my own info session. I plan to speak on how the Gilman scholarship makes studying abroad possible as well as the benefits of going abroad. I understand that people aren’t sure that going abroad is really worth it because they are worried about missing out on opportunities or internships in New York. However, having gone through this thought process myself, I have come to realize the importance of learning about a new culture and I want to help people understand that.”

WAIT!
1. You want to do an Info Session. Great. Now we need SPECIFICS!
2. Where and when will the info session be? How will you publicize? Who is your target audience and why?
3. You don’t need to write about the importance of Gilman or of studying abroad – the selection committee knows that already.
4. How will you use your individual background, experiences abroad, talents and skills, etc. in this project?
Sample Projects

Gilman Scholars have proposed projects in K-12 Outreach, Academic Department Outreach, Campus Office Outreach, Study Abroad Outreach and Other. Examples of these projects include:

- Participating in your local high school College Night to share information on study abroad opportunities and scholarships. Speaking to local k-12 students about the value of study away.
- Developing an informational flyer/brochure specific to your academic department or field of study promoting study abroad.
- Promoting and encouraging study abroad opportunities and the Gilman Scholarship at on-campus clubs, academic clubs, honor society meetings, or organization meetings.
- Presenting on study abroad opportunities and the Gilman Scholarship Program at Freshmen Orientation or in First-Year Experiences courses, encouraging students to consider study abroad earlier rather than later.
- Volunteering or working in the study abroad office as a Peer Mentor/Advisor to potential study abroad students.
- Serving as a resource person for a specific country/program/field of study that would advise/assist potential study abroad students.
- Hosting a photography exhibit on campus or in your community to share your experiences abroad, international opportunities that exist, and the Gilman Scholarship.

4 Questions to Ask Yourself

Critical Need Language (CNL) Award

1. Do you address your academic, professional, personal motivations for improving your language proficiency?

2. Do you give examples of how you will improve your language skills while studying abroad both inside and outside of the classroom setting?

3. Do you share how you intend to use the language after you study abroad and how the CNL Award prepares you for this?

4. If you would like to be considered for an exception of studying a language in a country/location where it is not predominantly spoken. Do you explain why you choose your particular location and the benefits and resources for studying the selected language there?
Application Tips
Gilman Scholars’ Tips for Applicants

Create a compelling story that ties your past, present, and future to highlight the impact the scholarship will have on you.

Start the application early, be your truest self, and have confidence that you are worthy.
Gilman Scholars’ Tips for Applicants

For your Follow-on Service Project, think about your community and local schools. Think of how you heard about Gilman and how you could tell others about it!

If you don’t apply, you’ll never get it!
Writing Tips

• Be precise
• Use clear, concise language
• Choose compelling words that paint a picture of who you are as a person
• Give concrete examples
• Mention the Gilman Scholarship by name
• Avoid jargon: don’t assume reader knows about NYU, your major or your planned field
• Proofread: Spellcheck does not catch everything! Consider asking someone with strong writing and editing skills to proofread the essay before you submit it.
• Make sure your grammar and spelling are impeccable!
• Be creative

Pro Tip! Remember, the selection committee is just as human as you are, with the difficult task of deciding who to award a scholarship to. Just like you, they have hopes, goals, dreams, and passions, and they can recognize these qualities in other people too. As you write your essay, appeal to these sensibilities and try to give them an idea of who you are.
