

NYU LONDON

NYU London students may concentrate their studies with global academic pathways in areas such as art history and architecture, British literature and writing, fashion, and prehealth. Day trips and guided excursions in and around London give students opportunities to engage with British culture. See the full list of available subject areas below.

NYU GLOBAL PROGRAMS

WHEN

Fall/spring/academic year/Summer Session/January Term.* Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS

Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses from a full array of disciplines taught by an exemplary faculty of local scholars, artists, and professionals.

Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Subject areas listed on the reverse side are generally offered during the fall and spring semesters. Some students may be eligible to register for one or two courses at NYU's affiliated institution, the University of London's School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS).

SAMPLE GLOBAL ACADEMIC PATHWAYS

Global academic pathways enable students to stay on track with their major and/or minor by providing clusters of study abroad courses that have been approved by NYU departments.

- Africana Studies: In the fall, students may take up to two Africana studies courses at the University of London's School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS).
- Art and Architecture: NYU's Urban Design and Architecture Studies program created a set of courses for NYU London students to engage in the debate about how city planners, architects, and artists can work together to improve residents' lives.
- British Literature, Theatre, and Writing: Students enroll in courses in literature, theatre, or creative writing.
- Business: NYU's world-renowned Stern School of Business offers courses in areas such as finance, management, marketing, and operations management.
- Fashion: The Gallatin School of Individualized Study hosts the Global Fashion in London program, which includes courses like History of British Fashion and Global Fashion Industry. Students outside the program may enroll in these courses, though program participants will be given registration priority.
- International Relations: Students take courses in politics, economics, and statistics, which prepare them for positions with governments, nongovernmental organizations, think tanks, international finance groups, multinational corporations, law firms, and other institutions.
- Prehealth: Students enroll in science courses acceptable to all American Medical College Application Service medical schools.
- Psychology: Students pursuing a Psychology major can take a variety of courses at NYU London.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

- Participation in various community service programs
- Book launches and a guest lecture series
- Membership in the Students' Union UCL (University College London)
- Cocurricular and extracurricular programming

GLOBAL ACADEMIC CENTER

Comprised of three beautifully restored 18th-century town houses located on historic Bedford Square in Bloomsbury, near the University of London, the center contains classrooms, two computer labs, study areas, and a lounge.

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIPS

NYU London organizes for-credit internships for students who want to gain work experience. Placements are offered in fields such as marketing, banking and financial services, film and television, law, politics, health, and theatre. Students will enroll in a four-credit course to earn credit for their academic internship.

HOUSING

Students live in either apartment-style suites in one of two NYU residence halls located in Bloomsbury or in doubles within a private residence hall located in the King's Cross area of Central London. If necessary, additional housing is secured in a private residence hall in Bloomsbury.

HOW TO APPLY

Apply at nyu.edu/global-programs. Application deadlines are posted online. The NYU Office of Global Programs reviews completed applications in multiple phases. Students are advised to apply by the earliest deadline.

ADMISSIONS

The admissions process ensures that all students studying with NYU are capable of performing to high academic standards. NYU's global locations draw an exceptional group of students from leading institutions throughout the United States in addition to NYU students. All students complete an online application, which includes a personal statement.

2019-2020 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)

University tuition and fees are $26,655, with the following exceptions: Tandon School of Engineering, Stern School of Business, and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.

Course offerings and housing accommodations at all global locations are subject to change. See the website for the most up-to-date information.

*Fall and spring semester study is open only to NYU students.
