DEPARTMENT OF ART AND ART PROFESSIONS

Berlin

Envision exciting new ways of making art through coursework offered at NYU Berlin through the Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development’s Department of Art and Art Professions. As a studio art student, you will learn to connect the rich visual traditions of the past with emerging forms and ideas as you take major-specific courses that guide you to develop your individual research and arts practice through an enhanced studio program at NYU Berlin. You will also attend workshops with accomplished professional artists, engage with local artists and critics, and participate in Berlin’s international contemporary arts scene by exploring museums and galleries and exhibiting your own work.
Students at NYU Berlin are able to fulfill college core requirements in the Foundations of Contemporary Culture component through a variety of courses in Cultures and Contexts, Texts and Ideas, and Societies and the Social Sciences. Studio Art majors can also fulfill other BFA curriculum requirements such as Studio Projects, the Restricted Elective in Art History, and Department and Liberal Arts Electives. Below is a selection of these courses.

ART AND ART HISTORY COURSES
- Ancient Art in Berlin: Discovering the Collections of Museum Island
- Art and Ideas: The Art World Today—Berlin and Beyond
- Interdisciplinary Projects: Guided Practice
- Place-Building-Time: The Architecture of Berlin
- Shaping an Educational Landscape: Museum Island

STUDENT LIFE
On-site staff provide support for you during your time abroad. Orientation, trips, student clubs, and language exchanges throughout the semester help you connect with your host culture. Housing varies by location and is guaranteed to all students.
