

NYU BERLIN

The NYU Berlin curriculum is designed for students who want to earn credit in their major while having a transformative experience in an amazing capital city, and it offers subject courses taught in English as well as German language courses. Students may concentrate their studies with global academic pathways in areas such as the arts, environmental studies, and sociology. Day trips and guided excursions in and around Berlin complement coursework. Refer to the full list of available subject areas below.

-
- Anthropology
 - Art and Art Professions
 - Art History
 - Business (spring only)
 - College Core Curriculum
 - Drama (fall only)
 - Emerging Media
 - Environmental Studies
 - European and Mediterranean Studies
 - Experiential Learning for Credit
 - Gallatin School Seminars
 - German Language
 - German Studies
 - Global Liberal Studies
 - History
 - Metropolitan Studies (Social and Cultural Analysis)
 - Politics
 - Psychology
 - Recorded Music (fall only)
 - Sociology

WHEN

Fall/spring/academic year/Summer Session/January Term. Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS

Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses from a full array of disciplines taught by an exemplary faculty of local scholars, artists, and professionals.

Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Subject areas listed on the reverse side are generally offered during the fall and spring semesters. Some students may be eligible to register for one or two courses at NYU's local affiliated institution, Humboldt University.

SAMPLE GLOBAL ACADEMIC PATHWAYS

Global academic pathways enable students to stay on track with their major and/or minor by providing clusters of study abroad courses that have been approved by NYU departments.

- Art and Art Professions: Students complete projects under the guidance of artist mentors while also studying Berlin's rich aesthetic legacy and its contemporary arts scene.
- Emerging Media: Students and faculty explore and create new communication technologies and applications that harness emerging media for art, education, entertainment, business, and human well-being.
- Environmental Studies: Students learn how other countries understand and resolve environmental problems at local and national levels. Coursework explores Germany's developing policies regarding environmental regulations and examines the differences between neighboring countries' green efforts.
- Politics: Students explore the legal and institutional foundations of the European Union and examine the politics of contemporary Germany through lectures and visits to important organizations and institutions.
- Sociology: Courses draw on German history through the analysis of major social theorists and seek to explain the factors that have influenced the city's present-day social constructs.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

To foster intercultural exchange, NYU Berlin initiates tandem partnerships with native German users, workshops with students from Humboldt University, art exhibits at the Berlinische Galerie, and similar events.

GLOBAL ACADEMIC CENTER

NYU Berlin has two academic facilities. The first is an impressive historic building in the KulturBrauerei complex, located in stylish Prenzlauer Berg, that contains classrooms, a computer lab, a student lounge, and a group meeting space. The second facility, located at St. Agnes in Kreuzberg, houses studio space for art classes.

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIPS

NYU Berlin organizes for-credit internships for students of all majors who want to gain work experience. For example, placements are offered in fields such as the arts, civic engagement, environmental sustainability, education, music, science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. Students will enroll in a four-credit course to earn credit for their academic internship.

HOUSING

Students share rooms in an NYU residence hall located in the district of Kreuzberg. Apartments are located 35 minutes away from the NYU academic center in Prenzlauer Berg. If necessary, additional housing will be secured within reasonable commuting distance.

STUDY AWAY PROCESS

Students interested in studying away can visit the NYU Office of Global Programs website at nyu.edu/global-programs and submit a brief online interest form. The Office of Global Programs considers the unique program requirements and each student's complete academic and university records when reviewing student submissions. Submission deadlines per semester are posted online. After each deadline, the NYU Office of Global Programs reviews submissions on a rolling basis.

Non-NYU students submit additional materials including an unofficial college transcript and an adviser approval form. Non-NYU students should research to confirm when the program they are most interested in will be available.

2022-2023 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)

University tuition and fees are $29,084, with the following exceptions: Stern School of Business and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.

Non-NYU students are encouraged to contact their home institution regarding portable financial assistance, such as Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, and Direct PLUS Loans. Through a consortium agreement initiated by the student's home university, this assistance may travel with the student and apply to NYU tuition and fees.

Course offerings and housing accommodations at all global locations are subject to change. Refer to the website for the most up-to-date information.

CONTACT US

Office of Global Programs
383 Lafayette Street, 4th Floor
New York, NY 10003-7011
212-998-4433
global.programs@nyu.edu

nyu.edu/global-programs

