

NYU BUENOS AIRES

The NYU Buenos Aires curriculum offers Spanish language instruction and courses in a diverse range of disciplines. Subject courses are taught in English and Spanish, and language courses are offered at all levels. Elementary and intermediate language courses are taught intensively, allowing students to complete the equivalent of one year of study in just a single semester. Students may concentrate their studies with global academic pathways in areas such as global public health, Latin American studies, and media. Day trips and guided excursions in and around the city are an integral part of the academic program. Refer to the full list of available subject areas below.

NYU
GLOBAL PROGRAMS

WHEN

Fall/spring/academic year/Summer Session/January Term. Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS

Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses from a full array of disciplines taught by an exemplary faculty of local scholars, artists, and professionals.

Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Subject areas listed on the reverse side are generally offered during the fall and spring semesters.

SAMPLE GLOBAL ACADEMIC PATHWAYS

Global academic pathways enable students to stay on track with their major and/or minor by providing clusters of study abroad courses that have been approved by NYU departments.

- Global Public Health: Students can conduct fieldwork through a for-credit internship seminar while taking courses in public health and community research.
- Latin American Studies: Students take courses that explore the culture, politics, media, and economics of Latin America, all of which focus on Argentina's influential role in the history of this fascinating region.
- Media in Buenos Aires: Study the many forms of Latin American media—including the popular press, cinema, radio, and television—in the Global Media Seminar. Learn about “the big leak era” in Journalism and Society: Leaks and Whistleblowers, and explore tango as an aesthetic, social, and cultural formation in Tango and Mass Culture.
- Spanish Language: All levels of Spanish language courses are available, from elementary to advanced, and are equivalent to a full year of study. Spanish-taught subject courses in a variety of disciplines are also available at the intermediate and advanced levels.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

- Internships and volunteer opportunities
- Homestays with local host families
- Guest lecture series, featuring prominent writers, artists, musicians, human rights activists, politicians, and health professionals

GLOBAL ACADEMIC CENTER

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIPS

NYU Buenos Aires organizes for-credit internships for students of all majors who want to gain work experience. For example, placements are offered in fields such as public policy, economic development, journalism and media, education, health, and the arts. Students will enroll in a four-credit course to earn credit for their academic internship.

HOUSING

Students live in a homestay with a local host family. Homestays are usually located in the Recoleta and Palermo neighborhoods. A limited number of students live in a residence hall in the Recoleta neighborhood.

STUDY AWAY PROCESS

Students interested in studying away can visit the NYU Office of Global Programs website at nyu.edu/global-programs and submit a brief online interest form. The Office of Global Programs considers the unique program requirements and each student's complete academic and university records when reviewing student submissions. Submission deadlines per semester are posted online. After each deadline, the NYU Office of Global Programs reviews submissions on a rolling basis.

Non-NYU students submit additional materials including an unofficial college transcript and an adviser approval form. Non-NYU students should research to confirm when the program they are most interested in will be available.

2022-2023 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)

University tuition and fees are $29,084, with the following exceptions: Stern School of Business and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.

Non-NYU students are encouraged to contact their home institution regarding portable financial assistance, such as Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, and Direct PLUS Loans. Through a consortium agreement initiated by the student's home university, this assistance may travel with the student and apply to NYU tuition and fees.

Course offerings and housing accommodations at all global locations are subject to change. Refer to the website for the most up-to-date information.
