

NYU FLORENCE

The NYU Florence curriculum offers a wide selection of courses taught in English and Italian. Students may concentrate their studies with global academic pathways in areas such as art history, business, fashion, Italian language, and prelaw. NYU staff and faculty plan day trips and guided excursions in the Tuscany region to complement in-class learning. Experiential learning opportunities and volunteer placements enable students to engage with the culture. Refer to the full list of available subject areas below.

WHEN

Fall/spring/academic year/Summer Session/January Term. Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS

Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses from a full array of disciplines taught by an exemplary faculty of local scholars, artists, and professionals.

Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Subject areas listed on the reverse side are generally offered during the fall and spring semesters. Some students may be eligible to register for one or two courses at NYU's local affiliated institution, the University of Florence.

SAMPLE GLOBAL ACADEMIC PATHWAYS

Global academic pathways enable students to stay on track with their major and/or minor by providing clusters of study abroad courses that have been approved by NYU departments.

- Art History: Students pursuing an Art History major can take a variety of courses at NYU Florence, such as Renaissance Art, The Gardens and Landscapes of Tuscany, and Roman Art. Classes meet off campus in the city center.
- Business: NYU's world-renowned Stern School of Business offers courses in accounting, management communication, marketing, and operations management.
- Fashion: The Gallatin School of Individualized Study hosts the Global Fashion in Florence program, consisting of the History of Italian Fashion and Global Fashion Industry courses. Students outside the program may enroll in these courses, though program participants receive registration priority.
- Italian Language Program: Students take courses designed to help them quickly achieve proficiency in Italian while living with a Florentine family.
- Prelaw: Courses in prelaw, politics, and history examine the distinct political system of Italy as well as the policies and legal systems of the European Union.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

- Experiential learning opportunities
- Noncredit volunteer placements
- Homestays with local host families
- Collaboration with University of Florence students on education and career-related topics

GLOBAL ACADEMIC CENTER

A breathtaking 57-acre estate consisting of five villas, manicured gardens, and olive groves, La Pietra is located 10 minutes away from the city center by bus.

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIPS

NYU Florence organizes for-credit internships for students of all majors who want to gain work experience. For example, placements are offered in fields such as business, the arts and arts management, and education. Students will enroll in a four-credit course to earn credit for their academic internship.

HOUSING

Students live in off-campus residences or Florentine households. A limited number of students live in the villas on La Pietra.

New York University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution.

STUDY AWAY PROCESS

Students interested in studying away can visit the NYU Office of Global Programs website at nyu.edu/global-programs and submit a brief online interest form. The Office of Global Programs considers the unique program requirements and each student's complete academic and university records when reviewing student submissions. Submission deadlines per semester are posted online. After each deadline, the NYU Office of Global Programs reviews submissions on a rolling basis.

Non-NYU students submit additional materials including an unofficial college transcript and an adviser approval form. Non-NYU students should research to confirm when the program they are most interested in will be available.

2022-2023 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)

University tuition and fees are $29,084, with the following exceptions: Stern School of Business and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.

Non-NYU students are encouraged to contact their home institution regarding portable financial assistance, such as Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, and Direct PLUS Loans. Through a consortium agreement initiated by the student's home university, this assistance may travel with the student and apply to NYU tuition and fees.

Course offerings and housing accommodations at all global locations are subject to change. Refer to the website for the most up-to-date information.
