WHEN
Fall/spring/Summer Session/January Term.* Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS
Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses taught by an exemplary faculty made up of local scholars, artists, and professionals. Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Courses listed on the reverse side are offered during the fall and spring semesters.

INTERNSHIPS AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES
All students will engage in an internship or a similar professional development experience in the entertainment and media industries. Students participate in workshops to better understand the creative and business landscape in Los Angeles, develop industry contacts, and facilitate the transition from student to employee.

ACADEMIC CENTER
Classes take place at the NYU academic site in Los Angeles’ Fairfax district.

HOUSING
Housing is guaranteed and required. Students live together with non-NYU residents in a complex located a pedestrian-friendly distance from NYU classrooms. The furnished, apartment-style residences include kitchens where students may prepare their own meals; if they choose to do so, they may also dine at local restaurants. NYU housing is conveniently situated near grocery stores, movie theatres, shopping, and LA’s world-famous Original Farmers Market, offering over 100 gourmet grocers and restaurants.

STUDY AWAY PROCESS
Students interested in studying away can visit the NYU Office of Global Programs website at nyu.edu/global-programs and submit a brief online interest form. The Office of Global Programs considers the unique program requirements and each student’s complete academic and university records when reviewing student submissions. Submission deadlines per semester are posted online. After each deadline, the NYU Office of Global Programs reviews submissions on a rolling basis.

2022–2023 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)
University tuition and fees are $29,084, with the following exceptions: Stern School of Business and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID
Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.
