

NYU PRAGUE

NYU Prague hosts a broad range of course offerings. All courses are taught in English, with the exception of intensive language courses in Czech, German, Polish, and Russian. Students may concentrate their studies with global academic pathways in areas such as business, journalism, and music. Local and regional trips planned by NYU staff members supplement in-class learning. Internships are featured prominently in the academic program. Refer to the full list of available subject areas below.

WHEN

Fall/spring/academic year/Summer Session/January Term. Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS

Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses from a full array of disciplines taught by an exemplary faculty of local scholars, artists, and professionals.

Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Subject areas listed on the reverse side are generally offered during the fall and spring semesters.

SAMPLE GLOBAL ACADEMIC PATHWAYS

Global academic pathways enable students to stay on track with their major and/or minor by providing clusters of study abroad courses that have been approved by NYU departments.

- Business: NYU's world-renowned Stern School of Business offers courses in marketing and Social Impact Core courses.
- Journalism: Specialized courses focus on mastering different genres of journalistic practice and media theory.
- Media in Prague: Courses explore the culture of media and advertising in contemporary society. Students investigate and report on local music, visual arts, and literature while attending guest lectures by foreign news correspondents.
- Music: Courses in music theory and music instruction are available through the Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

- Guest lecture series and global conferences hosted by the Prague Institute for Democracy, Economy and Culture
- Internships and volunteer opportunities
- Prague Wandering, student-run webzine

GLOBAL ACADEMIC CENTER

The academic center comprises two buildings on Malé náměstí, located minutes from the Old Town Square. It contains classrooms, computer labs, darkrooms, lounges, and a library.

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIPS

NYU Prague organizes for-credit internships for students of all majors who want to gain work experience. For example, placements are offered in fields such as the arts, business, journalism, and human rights. Students will enroll in a four-credit course to earn credit for their academic internship.

HOUSING

Students live in apartments in the Holešovice neighborhood or residence halls in the Vinohrady neighborhood. If necessary, additional housing is secured in close proximity to other student housing in the Holešovice neighborhood.

STUDY AWAY PROCESS

Students interested in studying away can visit the NYU Office of Global Programs website at nyu.edu/global-programs and submit a brief online interest form. The Office of Global Programs considers the unique program requirements and each student's complete academic and university records when reviewing student submissions. Submission deadlines per semester are posted online. After each deadline, the NYU Office of Global Programs reviews submissions on a rolling basis.

Non-NYU students submit additional materials including an unofficial college transcript and an adviser approval form. Non-NYU students should research to confirm when the program they are most interested in will be available.

2022-2023 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)

University tuition and fees are $29,084, with the following exceptions: Stern School of Business and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.

Non-NYU students are encouraged to contact their home institution regarding portable financial assistance, such as Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, and Direct PLUS Loans. Through a consortium agreement initiated by the student's home university, this assistance may travel with the student and apply to NYU tuition and fees.

Course offerings and housing accommodations at all global locations are subject to change. Refer to the website for the most up-to-date information.
