

NYU SHANGHAI

NYU Shanghai offers a rigorous academic curriculum with courses taught in English by leading local faculty. Students studying the humanities, business, economics, global China studies, history, math, media, neural science, and many other areas may enroll in advanced courses that fulfill their degree requirements. Students participate in trips in and around Shanghai. Volunteer opportunities and direct course-related learning enrich students' immersive experiences.

GLOBAL PROGRAMS

WHEN

Fall/spring/academic year/Summer Session/January Term. Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters or full academic year. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS

Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses from a full array of disciplines taught by an exemplary faculty of local scholars, artists, and professionals.

Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Subject areas listed on the reverse side are generally offered during the fall and spring semesters.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

- Shanghai neighborhood day tours and faculty-led weekend excursions
- Chinese conversational language support by student mentors
- Course-related experiential learning and community engagement opportunities
- Involvement with campus life, including student clubs, athletics and recreation, career development, and residential life
- Workshops in calligraphy, dim sum making, mah-jongg, paper cutting, and martial arts

CAMPUS

Students attend class at NYU Shanghai's newly constructed 115,000-square-meter campus in the Pudong district of downtown Shanghai.

HOUSING

Students live together in residence halls located in the Jinqiao district, which is surrounded by commercial shopping and restaurants. The residences are a 20-minute commute to the academic center via shuttle or metro.

STUDY AWAY PROCESS

Students interested in studying away can visit the NYU Office of Global Programs website at nyu.edu/global-programs and submit a brief online interest form. The Office of Global Programs considers the unique program requirements and each student's complete academic and university records when reviewing student submissions. Submission deadlines per semester are posted online. After each deadline, the NYU Office of Global Programs reviews submissions on a rolling basis.

Non-NYU students submit additional materials including an unofficial college transcript and an adviser approval form. Non-NYU students should research to confirm when the program they are most interested in will be available.

2022-2023 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)

NYU Shanghai tuition and fees are $29,084, with the following exceptions: Stern School of Business and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities such as the Freeman-ASIA award. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.

Non-NYU students are encouraged to contact their home institution regarding portable financial assistance, such as Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, and Direct PLUS Loans. Through a consortium agreement initiated by the student's home university, this assistance may travel with the student and apply to NYU tuition and fees.

Course offerings and housing accommodations at all global locations are subject to change. Refer to the website for the most up-to-date information.
