GIVE-A-VIOLET AWARD
The Give-A-Violet Award gives students, faculty, administrators, and staff the opportunity to thank members of the NYU community who have gone above and beyond the normal scope of their positions and have demonstrated specific values and competencies at an exceptional level in the performance of their everyday responsibilities.

ELIGIBILITY AND CRITERIA
All staff and administrators are eligible to receive a Give-A-Violet Award. Nominations are submitted, and a Give-A-Violet selection committee determines the winners.

Nominees will be evaluated based on the exceptional demonstration of the following values and competencies: Integrity, Respect, Customer Focus, Teamwork, Adaptability, and Commitment to Diversity. In addition, managers who are nominated should also excel in one or more of the following leadership competencies: Mentoring, Modeling, and Motivating.

UNIVERSITY RECOGNITION
The recipients of the Give-A-Violet Award will be announced in the spring. The winners are invited to a special luncheon reception hosted by the president of NYU and receive a commemorative pin and gift.

NOMINATIONS
Submit your nomination at www.nyu.edu/hr. If you don’t have online access, you may use one of the available NYUHome stations located all around campus. Bring your NYU ID to any station to get free, walk-up access to the Internet.

NOMINATIONS DUE BY
January 17, 2019

For details about the award, including eligibility and criteria, please visit www.nyu.edu/hr or scan the QR code below.
If you have questions, contact NYU PeopleLink at askpeoplelink@nyu.edu or 212-992-LINK (5465).