New York University is committed to protecting the safety and well-being of minors who participate in programs and activities held at, sponsored by, or otherwise associated with NYU. With that goal in mind, NYU has enacted the Protection of Minors Policy which sets forth requirements to take part in programs involving minors (including registration and training), guidelines for working with minors, and reporting obligations. The policy will be monitored and enforced by the Office of Youth Programs Compliance.

If a member of the University community has reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or the neglect of a minor participating in a program or activity at NYU, contact the NYU Wellness Exchange at 212-443-9999.

For more information about the protection of minors on campus at New York University, visit nyu.edu/protectionofminors or contact NYU PeopleLink at askpeoplelink@nyu.edu or 212-992-LINK (5465).