

New York University

Protection of Minors Policy

Notice to Third-Party Vendors

If the program or activity for which an NYU space or facility being utilized will involve the participation of minors (persons under the age of 18 who are not matriculated in an NYU degree-granting program), you may be required to register the program or activity with the Office of Youth Programs Compliance and to otherwise abide by the University's Protection of Minors Policy.

For questions on determining whether or not the program needs to be registered, please contact NYU PeopleLink at askpeoplelink@nyu.edu or 212-992-LINK (5465).

For additional information and to view the Policy, please visit nyu.edu/protectionofminors.
