

Administrative Structure of Global Network

In addition to primary reporting lines presented here, all positions have close working relationships with one another.

ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE OF NYU'S GLOBAL NETWORK

1. The President/Chancellor of NYU is the chief officer of all NYU, including NYU Abu Dhabi, NYU Shanghai, and NYU's global Sites.
2. The NYU Provost is the senior provost of all NYU.
3. The NYU Abu Dhabi Vice Chancellor reports to the NYU President; the NYU Abu Dhabi Provost reports to the NYU Abu Dhabi Vice Chancellor, and has a close working relationship with the NYU Provost. The NYU Abu Dhabi deans report to the NYU Abu Dhabi Provost.
4. The NYU Shanghai Vice Chancellor reports to the NYU President. The NYU Shanghai Provost reports to the NYU Shanghai Vice Chancellor, and has a close working relationship with the NYU Provost. The NYU Shanghai deans report to the NYU Shanghai Provost. Under Chinese law, NYU Shanghai also has a Chancellor who must be a Chinese national; this Chancellor provides advice to the NYU President and NYU Shanghai Vice Chancellor and convenes the NYU Shanghai Board.
5. The Vice Chancellor for Global Programs and University Life reports to the NYU President, has a dotted line to the NYU Provost, and has close working relationships with the NYU Abu Dhabi and NYU Shanghai Vice Chancellors, the NYU Vice Chancellor for Strategic Planning, the Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, and the New York School Deans. Reporting to the Vice Chancellor is the Vice President for Global Programs who oversees the day-to-day operation of the global sites. This Vice Chancellor oversees university-wide admissions and student life (New York, Abu Dhabi, Shanghai) and operations of the Sites, including curricular and faculty matters at the Sites, together with the Senior Vice Provost for Academic Affairs.
6. The Vice Chancellor for Strategic Planning provides advice on academic relationships among schools in New York, NYU Abu Dhabi, NYU Shanghai, and Global Programs. This Vice Chancellor reports to the NYU President, has a dotted line to the NYU Provost, and has close working relationships with the NYU Provost and the leadership teams of NYU Abu Dhabi, NYU Shanghai, and Global Programs.
7. The Deputy Provost/Vice Chancellor, Europe reports to the NYU President and the NYU Provost, works closely with the Deans, Directors, and Schools on academic planning, and directs the Provost's Global Research Initiatives Program, which supports faculty and graduate research at NYU's global Sites.
8. The Senior Vice Provost for Global Faculty Development coordinates the recruitment of tenured, tenure-track, and contract faculty at NYU Abu Dhabi and NYU Shanghai. The Deputy Vice Chancellor of NYU Abu Dhabi coordinates the appointment of New York faculty members as affiliated faculty at NYU Abu Dhabi and NYU Shanghai.
9. The NYU President, NYU Provost, NYU Abu Dhabi Vice Chancellor, and NYU Shanghai Vice Chancellor have final authority over academic decisions at NYU Abu Dhabi and NYU Shanghai. Decisions involving the hiring of tenured and tenure-track faculty at NYU Abu Dhabi and NYU Shanghai (searches, tenure decisions, etc.) require not only the approval of the NYU Abu Dhabi (NYU Shanghai) leadership but also the NYU Provost.
10. New York School Deans have oversight over New York's academic programs. All and any agreements between NYU Abu Dhabi, NYU Shanghai, or Global Programs and New York departments or faculty require approval of the relevant New York dean. Courses offered at the Sites and faculty teaching these courses require approval by the sponsoring departments/schools and the relevant Dean.
