NYU SPRING
DEAR NEW STUDENT,

Welcome to New York University!
The Office of Undergraduate Admissions has given me the exciting news that you have chosen to join our exceptional community of scholars, scientists, athletes, innovators, change agents, artists, entrepreneurs, hackers, and academics from around the world.

To help you prepare for a smooth arrival on campus, this guide features action items to complete over the coming months and various communications that you can expect to receive via mail and email. These include some of the most important deadlines, but it’s not the full list — stay tuned to nyu.edu/nextstop for the latest information. Your school or program will also send details about orientation and course registration.

All official communications will be sent to your NYU email address. Please activate your account now at start.nyu.edu — and check your inbox regularly.

I hope you will find the Next Stop NYU communications to be useful to you and your family as you prepare for your transition to NYU.

If you have questions leading up to your arrival, please do not hesitate to get in touch with me, to contact the admissions office, or to reach out to the Center for Student Life at (212) 998-4411.

I hope you find your gap semester to be a time to pursue your interests, passions and projects, and that you will look ahead to your arrival at NYU with anticipation and excitement!

With all best wishes,

Marc Wais
Senior Vice President for Student Affairs
marc.wais@nyu.edu
This schedule shows important dates for most students, but it might not be a complete list of deadlines for everyone. Please supplement the information on these pages with communications from other University offices. Not all deadlines will apply to all students, and dates may vary based on your date of admission.
Your school or academic department might also have additional deadlines and requirements not featured in Next Stop NYU. Stay tuned to your NYU email, or reach out to them for details. Find school contacts on the Next Stop NYU website.

UPON ADMISSION
Financial Aid Award Acceptance
OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID
For students offered federal financial aid, such as loans or work study, you may accept them on NYU Albert Student Center. Any grant or scholarships that you may have been awarded will already be accepted on your behalf. In order for financial aid to be reflected on your spring semester bill, you need to have accepted the aid you intend to accept, have completed any required paperwork, and have credit approval (for Parent PLUS Loans).

OCTOBER 15
On-Campus Housing Application and Reservation Payment
RESIDENTIAL LIFE AND HOUSING SERVICES
Freshmen who are interested in living on campus may submit the $1000 housing reservation payment when they accept their offer of admission for the Spring semester. The housing application will be available on October 15. Both the application and housing reservation payment must be received by November 15 in order to guarantee housing placement.
While spring transfer students are not guaranteed housing, we have historically had success in extending housing offers.

FINANCIAL EDUCATION

Make Sound Financial Decisions Using iGrad

NYU has partnered with iGrad, an online financial education tool, to ensure students and their families have access to customized resources that will expand their knowledge of personal finance. iGrad helps you answer questions like how to make an NYU education possible, how to manage your financial needs, how to create a monthly budget, and how to navigate the student loan process.

To get started, create a free account and answer a few questions about your current status — iGrad will automatically recommend relevant articles, tools, and topics. Once you create a private account, you can measure your financial literacy health and keep track of student loan accounts.

Meet the NYU Student Health Center

We’re here to help you feel your best so you can do your best! Your health and wellbeing is our top priority. In addition to scheduling same-day appointments, you can speak with a mental or medical health professional 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Our goal is to support your NYU experience. You can arrange medical and mental health support before you arrive at NYU. Call the Wellness Exchange at (212) 443-9999 or email wellness.exchange@nyu.edu, and we’ll make arrangements to meet your needs. If your medical history includes a chronic medical condition or treatment by a psychotherapist or psychiatrist, let us know through your Health History Form. We want to learn more about you so we can better meet your needs.
