Before Classes Begin

There are a few things every student needs to do before classes begin to make sure they are ready for the summer sessions at NYU.

1. Activate your NYU NetID
   You should have done this already in order to register for your course(s), but if you haven’t you should activate your NetID as soon as possible. Your NetID is your e-identification, which gives you access to electronic resources at NYU. It is a combination of your initials and random numbers. If you are a visiting or exchange student, you should have received your NetID and instructions for activation via email when you were admitted to NYU.
   When you activate your NetID, you will have access to NYUHome, the central student information system where you read your email and you can log-in to your Student Center to register for classes, view your course schedule, pay your bill, and request your transcript. NYUHome is online at home.nyu.edu.
2. Read your NYU email
It is NYU policy that communications between the University and students occur over NYU email, which is available through NYUHome. You may have already received emails from NYU offices and services at your NYU address. You will also be expected to email professors, staff, and students using your NYU account. Your NYU email address is your NetID@nyu.edu. You should read your NYU email often to make sure you do not miss important information or notices! Instructions are online at https://www.nyu.edu/its/email/

3. Get your NYUCard
All students must have a NYUCard. The NYUCard is a multi-purpose identification card issued to all students. It grants you access to NYU buildings, residence halls, athletic facilities, and resources and services. You can also use it as an ID card in the city to receive student discounts at museums, shops, and other locations.

You should get your NYUCard before your first class so you can have access to the NYU building where your class will take place. You can get your NYUCard at the NYUCard Center located at 7 Washington Place at Mercer Street. You must bring a photo ID with you to get your NYUCard. Information about submitting your ID photo online is available here: https://photoid.nyu.edu/. Online photo ID submission will begin in the late spring (date TBD).

If you are in the New York City area, we recommend you get your card before classes start, because the Card Center will likely be very busy the first day of class. The Card Center is open Monday-Friday, 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m. If you will not be in the NYU area before classes begin, you can get your NYUCard on the first day of class.

Note: Students are asked to turn in their NYUCard to the Card Center at the end of their time at NYU (it will be deactivated when you are no longer a student). If a student returns to NYU in the future without having turned in their NYUCard he/she will be assessed a $15 replacement fee.

4. Check your course schedule and student account balance on NYUHome
It is a good idea to log-in to NYUHome and your Student Center (under Academics tab) and double check your course schedule and account balance before class begins to make sure your registration and account are set and have not changed. You can also map the location of your class by using the NYU campus map online at http://www.nyu.edu/footer/map.html.

5. Submit your immunization forms
New York State law and NYU policy require all students taking six credits/points or more during the summer to submit proof of immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella and acknowledge receipt of information regarding immunization for meningitis. All students taking at least six credits must submit their forms to the Student Health Center Immunization Office. Students who do not submit forms are at risk of being dropped from all courses without a refund after summer courses begin. Information about immunization is online at http://www.nyu.edu/life/safety-health-wellness/student-health-center/records-forms-policies/health-requirements.html.
6. Get your textbooks
You may search for your textbooks online at the NYU Bookstore website: http://bookstores.nyu.edu/. You can search for textbooks by entering your own information or your course information. If your search does not yield results, do not worry! Some professors do not order their books through the NYU Bookstore, and you can always wait until the first day of class to get your syllabus to see which books and readings you will need. You can purchase your textbooks from the NYU Bookstore, which sells new and used books, or another provider of your choice such as Amazon.com or Barnes & Noble.

Orientation and Check-In

Summer in NYC Online Orientation (recommended)
Available online in May: http://www.nyu.edu/admissions/summer-sessions/summer-in-nyc/admitted-students.html

The online orientation will be online for all students to view prior to the start of summer. The orientation will highlight the important information found in this handbook and more. It is recommended that all summer students view the orientation and read this handbook before summer courses begin.

International Student Check-In (mandatory)

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires all new international students with a J-1 or F-1 visa to report their arrival at NYU to the Office of Global Services. OGS will host a check-in to help you meet this requirement. All international students must attend and should bring their I-20, I-94 record, passport, and emergency contact information to their session. Failure to check-in may jeopardize your ability to legally remain in the United States. You can find more information about the mandatory check-in, including locations and the online RSVP form here. Dates are as follows:

- Friday May 29: 1:30pm
- Friday, June 19: 1:30pm
- Friday, July 10: 1:30pm
- Friday, July 24th: 1:30pm

International students with any questions about their student status should contact the Office of Global Services at newinternationalstudents@nyu.edu or 212-998-4720.

Classes is used by many professors to post the course syllabus, readings, online discussions, and other course information online. To access Classes, log-in to NYUHome and click the Academics tab. Please remember that not all courses at NYU use Classes. If you do not see your course(s) listed in Classes, it does not mean you are not registered for the course. To see all of the courses you are registered for, you can view your complete schedule on Albert. If you know a course is using Classes and it does not appear in NYUHome, you can contact NYU ITS for assistance at 212-998-3333. It is often helpful to ask your professor on the first day of class if NYU Classes will be used during the summer.

Accommodations are determined on a case-by-case basis; however, examples include extended time on exams, a smaller proctored testing environment, supplemental class notes, and housing accommodations.

Students are strongly encouraged to contact CSD well in advance (a minimum of one month) of the beginning of their summer courses to allow necessary time to review disability requests and implement accommodations. Please contact CSD with any questions you may have about their services.

Academic Procedures
Visiting students must follow the procedures set forth by the Office of University Programs regarding add/drop of courses, requesting a course for a grade of pass/fail, and withdrawing from some or all courses during the summer. NYU degree students must follow the procedures of their own school. All students, visiting and NYU, are held to the withdrawal and refund schedules set by the University. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with these policies and procedures and are strongly encouraged to speak with their academic advisor if they have questions. Information about academic policies for visiting students is available online at: http://nyu.edu/arc/visitingstudents.

Course Registration
Students may register for courses online via Albert before the start date of the session or quarter in which their course takes place. After the session or quarter begins, if you wish to change your registration, you must do so by meeting with your Academic Advisor in person.

Course Withdrawal
Each summer session or quarter has its own deadline by which students must withdraw. If students withdraw after that deadline, they will receive a grade of W for their summer course(s). Withdraw deadlines are listed online at http://www.nyu.edu/registrar/registration/summer-withdrawal-schedule.html.

If a student withdraws from a course or withdraws from the University for the summer, he/she may be eligible for a tuition refund depending on the date of withdrawal. GETTING AROUND NYU and NYC

Getting to NYU
NYU is primarily located around Washington Square Park in the Greenwich Village neighborhood in downtown Manhattan. The campus is easily reached using New York City public transportation. Directions on how to get to NYU are on the NYU visitor’s website at http://www.nyu.edu/about/visitor-information/getting-to-nyu.html. There is no NYU transportation service to bring you to campus from the local airports or bus/train terminals. All students are responsible for transportation to NYU.

There are many ways to get from the airport to campus, including buses, shuttles, and trains. The easiest way to get to campus is to use a taxi or car service. If you use a taxi, be sure to get one from the official taxi stand at the airport. DO NOT accept a ride from an unauthorized taxi driver.

Also, if you are flying, it is a good idea to register your trip with NYU Traveler at http://www.nyu.edu/life/travel-and-transportation/nyu-traveler.html. NYU Traveler is the University’s web-based travel safety service.

Getting Around NYU
NYU Transportation
http://www.nyu.edu/public.safety/transportation/

Limited bus service traveling between the various areas of the NYU campus will be available from Monday-Friday. You must show your NYUCard to use the bus, and rides are free. Please check the transportation website for service routes and schedules.

Campus Map and Tour
Interactive and downloadable campus maps are online at http://www.nyu.edu/footer/map.html. We recommend students download the NYU Mobile app which also features a campus map.

Getting Around New York City
Most of Manhattan’s streets form a grid with streets running east and west and avenues running north and south. Street numbers increase as you travel north (10th Street is north of 4th Street), and avenue numbers increase as you travel west (5th Avenue is west of 2nd Avenue). Broadway is the only street in Manhattan that travels the full length of the island and is not a part of the grid.
Areas of the city that were built prior to the grid’s creation in 1811, like the Financial District and West Village, have narrower and more crooked streets with names rather than numbers.

Public Transportation
New York City Subway Map: http://web.mta.info/maps/submap.html

The Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) operates the city’s network of subways and buses. To use public transportation in the city, students must purchase a MetroCard. MetroCards cost $1.00, and one ride on a bus or subway is $2.75. You can receive discounts when you buy a MetroCard with multiple or unlimited rides. MetroCards may be purchased from vending machines or tellers in any subway station. Transfers from one subway line to another or from the subway to the bus are free.

For more information about MetroCards, please visit the MTA website at http://web.mta.info/metrocard/tourism/index.html.

Commuter Transportation
Commuter students travelling to NYU’s campus can use the MTA, New Jersey Transit, Long Island Railroad, MetroNorth, PATH, and other transportation services. Only New Jersey Transit offers a student discount on fares.

Further commuter student information is available from Commuter and Off-Campus Student Services at http://www.nyu.edu/students/undergraduates/student-communities/commutersoff-campus.html.

Websites and Apps
Below is a list of suggested websites and apps you can use to navigate around the city.
