

Dr. Ann Temkin Receives the Second IFA Honorary Fellowship

We are pleased to announce the second annual IFA Honorary Fellow. This year's recipient is Ann Temkin, the Marie- Josée and Henry Kravis Chief Curator of Painting and Sculpture at the Museum of Modern Art in New York. Dr. Temkin received a B.A. from Harvard University and a Ph.D. in the History of Art from Yale University. Upon the retirement of John Elderfield in 2008, Dr. Temkin became Chief Curator of painting and sculpture at MoMA. Her research focuses on postwar and contemporary art, with past exhibitions surveying artists including Joseph Beuys, Sherrie Levine, Alice Neel, Barnett Newman, Gabriel Orozco, and Raymond Pettibon. She recently curated a major exhibition on abstract expressionism in New York, culled entirely from MoMA's collection.

The IFA Honorary Fellowship, established in 2011, recognizes distinguished scholars in art history, archaeology, conservation and related disciplines, or outstanding figures in the visual arts. This award acknowledges their contribution to learning, teaching and practice in these fields.
